Rue de l'Alma

9 min from the Tourist Office

This is the largest shopping street in the city centre where you will find the main unisex ready-to-wear fashion brands, but also sporting equipment, phone products, IT products, jewellery perfume and fragrances, cosmetics and even duty free stores.

20 rue de l'Alma

2

Rue G. Clemenceau

+ 3 min

In addition to the several snack vendors and Small trendy stores (tableware, decorative items, leather goods, costume jewellery, accessories...), Rue Clemenceau is home to a boutique-studio where you will find a truly unique artistic product made using Megalodon teeth.

25 rue Georges Clemenceau

3

Rue de Sébastopol

+ 5 min

Jewellery, ready-to-wear ladies' fashion and organic products contribute to the charm of the meticulously showcased shop windows that run the entire length of this main shopping street. A gourmet stop close to the bandstand is also a must.

25 rue de Sébastopol

4

Rue E. Porcheron

+ 7 min

Located close to the Musée de la Nouvelle-Calédonie, crossing through the Moana Center Gallery, you will arrive at the gates to the Latin Quarter. There you will find a wide range of snack bars, restaurants and cafés, but also a diverse selection of shops.

13 rue Eugène Porcheron

5

Quartier latin

+ 5 min

As you head back down Rue Auguste Brun to Latin Square, the interior design brands, art galleries and bookstores come one after the other. Everything is bursting with French-style elegance and even the restaurant menus further showcase this expertise.

15 rue Auguste Brun

6

Avenue du Maréchal Foch

+ 10 min

After the beautiful Bernheim Library, there is "Le Village" to rest away from the hustle and bustle of the city, on the terrace of a café. Room to unwind, with toy stores for the children and several Pacific souvenirs (cosmetics, clothing and craft) to bring back for your friends.

35 avenue du Maréchal Foch

7

Quartier Asiatique

+ 3 min

With its magnificent arch and its red suspended lamp posts, this is the quarter in which to pick up great bargains at affordable prices, however, it is also the place of refuge of the seamstresses, with their Pacific-inspired dresses and fabrics.

23 rue d'Austerlitz

8

Galerie Nouméa Centre

+ 3 min

Beside the Place des Cocotiers (Coconut Palm Square), you will find this eclectic shopping arcade with its continual comings and goings. Souvenir shops line up alongside ready-to-wear fashion boutiques, as well restaurants, a cybercafé and even a tobacconist/news agent.

20 rue Anatole France

DETOUR 1

Galerie Port Plaisance

7 min from the Tourist Office

Nestled between the "Baie de l'Orphelinat" (Orphanage Bay) and the "Baie des Citrons" (Lemon Bay), this vast shopping arcade is home to around thirty varied shops and offers a comfortable place to stop, opposite a beautiful marina.

10 rue Jules Garnier

DETOUR 2

Anse Vata

15 min from the Tourist Office

Right along the must-see Anse Vata beach, you will find several shopping arcades (in particular the Complexe La Promenade and the Galerie Palm Beach) with a wide range of fashion stores, restaurants, bars and café terraces, very popular with the locals.

107 Promenade Roger Laroque
